

I think the "Do not call list" should stay exactly as is. Telemarketing is an annoyance & should not be allowed. I have an unpublished phone number & pay extra each month for caller ID Block which these telemarketers somehow manage to "override" & still manage to get through by phone. This is an invasion of my privacy. These same companies can send mailers to potential customers instead of calling them.